others, when required to comply with applicable law or request from a regulator or for cooperation with the government, to prevent or reduce fraud or verify or enforce compliance with the terms governing our services, or to protect our or our users' or employees' rights, property, and safety.

Rollesee Acmeda is an international business and has entities located in various countries, including Australia, the United States of America and countries within the European Union. Certain aspects of our business activities may require the transfer of your personal information from one country to another. Depending on where you live, your personal information may be shared with the Rollesee Acmeda group of companies that are based in Australia, the USA or the EU. Your personal information may also be stored on Rollesee Acmeda Australia information servers located in Australia, Italy and the USA as well as cloud-based servers operated by our cloud service providers.

7. How do we hold and keep your personal information secure?

Rollesee Acmeda holds your personal information on electronic files on its databases and servers. We may combine personal information we receive about you with other information we hold about you. This includes information received from third parties.

Rollesee Acmeda takes appropriate steps to ensure that the personal information we hold is kept secure and protected from unauthorised access, loss or disclosure through various methods. These include password and authorisation protection and secure storage. Also, data encryption protocols are implemented in relation to our cloud service provider which hosts our mobile app and IoT integrations.

Please contact Rollesee Acmeda immediately if you believe that the personal information that we hold about you may have been compromised so that we can investigate the matter.

8. How do you make a privacy complaint?

If you believe that Rollease Acmeda has handled your personal information inconsistently with this Privacy Policy or its privacy obligations, you can make a complaint using the relevant contact details below. To address your complaint, we may need to verify your identity and ask you to provide us with further information to enable us to investigate your complaint.

We will investigate your complaint and notify you of our decision and offer any resolution that we consider appropriate within a reasonable period of time.

If you are not satisfied with our resolution of your complaint, you can contact your local data protection supervisory authority or regulator.

11. Legal information and Rollease Acmeda contact details

Australia

In Australia, your personal information will be collected and held in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Australian Privacy Principles.

How to seek access to and correction of your personal information we hold about you: You may request access to and correction of your personal information by contacting us at the details below. You will not be charged for making such a request. We may refuse access to some or all of your personal information if an exception in the Privacy Act applies, such as where providing access would have an unreasonable impact upon the privacy of other individuals. You may also ask us to correct any of your personal information we hold about you. You can also update your profile and account details on our website at any time, by selecting the “my account” function and then “edit/change details” here <https://www.rolleaseacmeda.com/login?ReturnUrl=https://www.rolleaseacmeda.com/user-profile/EditProfile>.

If we refuse your request we will explain why in writing and how to complain if you are not satisfied with our decision.

Collection of Information from Children. We do not knowingly collect information from children under the age of thirteen (13). If we learn that a child under the age of 13 has provided us with information, we will delete it in accordance with applicable law.

Your California Privacy Rights. California residents are entitled once a year, free of charge, to request and obtain certain information regarding our disclosure, if any, of certain categories of information to third parties for their direct marketing purposes in the preceding calendar year. We do not share personal information with third parties for their own direct marketing purposes.

Do-No-Track Signals. Some web browsers may transmit “do-not-track” signals to the websites with which the user communicates. Because of differences in how web browsers incorporate and activate this feature, it is not always clear whether users intend for these signals to be transmitted, or whether they are even aware of them. Because there currently is no industry standard concerning what, if anything, websites should do when they receive these signals, Rollease Acmeda currently does not take action in response to these signals. If and when a final standard is established and accepted, we will reassess how to respond to these signals.
